

Education

University of Bucharest, Sociology , 1967-1971

Internships abroad/ in international system

- “Population and development” international course , UN, CEDOR, Bucharest, 1980 (diplôme avec mérite)
- IREX , USA 1986
- Fulbright, USA 1993-1994

Teaching

Current lectures: migration and development, transnational migration, community and regional development, methodology of public opinion research.

Pervious lectures: social data analysis, transition sociology, social statistics, explaining demographic phenomena

Other professional activities

- Research design and data analysis for Public Opinion Barometer, Soros Foundation Romania, 1995-2007.
- Applied social research as World Bank and PHARE expert on topics related to: family agriculture, social capital, community development, community poverty, roma communities, mining areas, regional development
- National editor for EuroBarometer data for Romania, 2004-2008
- Evaluator/president for Social sciences commission for confirming university titles at Education Ministry, 2000-2009

Part of the research reports and data basis associated with research activities are available at <http://dumitru.sandu.googlepages.com>, subpages referring to researches and data basis

International research programs

- Contribution to designing the new system for regional development in Romania, 1996-1997, Phare
- Social foundation for a social housing program in Montenegro, 2006, CEB

General areas of specialization

Migration and development, community and regional development, public opinion research, social capital

Awards

“Dimitrie Gusti” prize of the Romanian Academy for the volume Transition Sociology. Social Values and Types in Romania, Bucuresti: Staff, 1996

Scientific papers

<http://dumitru.sandu.googlepages.com>

Books recently published as editor:

- Social life in urban Romania, Iași: Polirom, 2006
- Living temporary abroad. Economic migration of Romanians 1990-2006. FSD, 2006
- Practice of Community Development, Iași: Polirom